THE SHORT VERSION

I have been mixing live sound since 1997, and I still run every event myself. When your client books SwissMixx, the person on the phone is the person behind the console, with a second of everything that matters in the truck. Five stars across 149 Google reviews, and every price published on the site where everyone can see it.

WHY PLANNERS KEEP MY NUMBER

- One contact who answers, and answers fast.
- Published prices. Your client sees the same number you do.
- Certificate of insurance the same day, named to your venue.
- W-9 sent with the first quote, not after you ask twice.
- Backup rig at every event. A dead cable is my problem, not yours.
- Early load-in, quiet teardown, no drama with the caterer.

WHAT I COVER

- Wedding DJ, ceremony sound and MC
- Corporate AV: meetings, galas, product launches
- Live event, festival and city celebration sound
- Fireworks and drone show audio, timecode synced
- Silent disco (750 headsets) and karaoke
- Audio guest book with a keepsake mix
- School theatre wireless and church audio
- Gear rentals: 74 items with published rates

"He was able to mic the officiant as well as the bride and groom. He arrived early and stayed late. If you are looking for a true professional, look no further. You found him."

MIKE METTLER · FATHER OF THE BRIDE AND OFFICIANT · GOOGLE REVIEW

"It rained and we stayed and danced in the rain."

PAPERWORK, BEFORE YOU ASK

Certificate of insurance the same day, named however your venue needs it. W-9 on file and sent with the first quote. Vendor portal registration the same week you ask. A 25 percent deposit holds any date, and the date is not reserved until it is paid. I will always tell you straight where a date stands.

And if I am booked, I will find you someone good. Ask anyone who has called me on a Friday.
